

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
BOARD OF ZONING ADJUSTMENT

Application No. 16619 of Romano Romani and Thomas D. Parry, pursuant to 11 DCMR §§ 3103.2 and 330.5, for a variance from the use provisions to allow the premises to be used as general office space (a lobbyist group) in an R-4 District at premises 233 Constitution Avenue, N.E. (Square 758, Lot 39).

HEARING DATES: November 8, 2000; February 13, 2001; May 15, 2001

DECISION DATE: May 15, 2001

DISMISSAL ORDER

REVIEW BY ZONING ADMINISTRATOR

This application was accompanied by a memorandum from the Zoning Administrator certifying the required relief.

This Application was brought by Romano Romani and Thomas D. Parry (collectively, the Applicant), the owners of the subject property and partners in a lobbying firm whose offices are located on the property. A hearing was originally scheduled for November 8, 2000 but the Board granted the Applicant's request for a continuance and the hearing was rescheduled for February 13, 2001. On January 29, 2001, the Capitol Hill Restoration Society requested party status to oppose the application.

The Applicant made another request for a continuance at the February 13 hearing due to the death of Thomas D. Parry, one of the partners of the lobbying firm. This request was granted and the hearing was again rescheduled, for May 15, 2001. A third request for a continuance was made at the May 15 hearing due to the fact that the property in question was involved in a complicated estate proceeding following the death of Mr. Parry. The Applicant requested postponement of the hearing until September 2001 pending the completion of the estate proceeding, after which the lobbying firm would evaluate the property and determine the ownership rights and its future use the subject property.

The Capitol Hill Restoration Society, represented by its Zoning Chair Lyle Schauer, and Ellen Chafee, who lives across the street from the property, both recommended that the Board grant the continuance until September, so that the case would be heard then and the Board could make a final determination as to whether the office use was a legal or illegal use of the property. Another resident of neighboring property, Joe Warren, opposed the requested continuance, citing the continued operation of a business in the residential neighborhood.

The Applicant stated that the probate matter was expected to be resolved by September 2001, but suggested that a longer postponement of the hearing on the variance application – until December 2001 – was more realistic and would minimize the need for a potential fourth request for a continuance. The Applicant also stated that the application might be withdrawn after conclusion of the probate proceeding, depending on decisions with respect to the lobbying firm’s continued use of the property.

The Applicant was not prepared to present its case on the scheduled hearing date, even though the request for continuance had not yet been decided. The Board concludes that further postponement of this application is unwarranted. The Applicant seeks to delay the hearing on its application until after completion of probate proceeding, which will not be concluded until at least September and possibly months later. Further, the Applicant indicated that the variance request might be withdrawn, depending on the outcome of the probate proceeding. Thus, even if the Board granted another continuance, there would be no guarantee of the sort of “final determination” desired by the Capitol Hill Restoration Society. The Board is also concerned that indefinite postponement of this application would allow the continued use of residentially zoned property for commercial office purposes.

In light of the foregoing, the Board hereby ORDERS that the application be DISMISSED.

VOTE: 2-1-2 (Anne M. Renshaw and Susan M. Hinton to deny the request for a continuance; Sheila Cross Reid opposed; Anthony J. Hood abstaining, the third mayoral appointee not present, not voting).

FINAL VOTE: 3-1-1 (Anne M. Renshaw, Susan M. Hinton, and Anthony J. Hood to dismiss the application; Sheila Cross Reid opposed, the third mayoral appointee not present, not voting).

BY ORDER OF THE D.C. BOARD OF ZONING ADJUSTMENT

Each concurring member has approved the issuance of this Decision and Order.
